Fundamental Principles of the MLA Handbook 8th Edition

Core Elements of Citation

One of the foundational aspects of the 8th edition is the focus on core elements. These elements form the building blocks of a citation and are common across all source types. They are:

- Author(s): Who created the source?
- Title of source: What is the name of the work?
- Title of container: Is the source part of a larger work or collection?
- Other contributors: Editors, translators, etc.
- Version: Edition, volume, or issue number.
- Number: Usually used for serial publications.
- Publisher: Who published the source?
- Publication date: When was it published?
- Location: Page numbers, DOI, URL, or other location identifiers.

The principle is to include only the elements relevant to the specific source, in the order listed, separated by periods.

Principles of Citation

The 8th edition promotes several guiding principles:

- Identify and include only necessary information. Avoid overloading citations with details that do not aid in source retrieval.
- Use consistent formatting. Maintain uniformity across all citations.
- Prioritize digital and multimedia sources. Adapt citation practices to suit various media types.
- Focus on the source's core elements. Use the available information to construct clear citations.

Structure and Formatting Guidelines

General Paper Formatting

While citation practices are a primary focus, the 8th edition also provides guidance on formatting the overall paper:

- Use standard 8.5 x 11-inch paper with 1-inch margins.
- Double-space the entire document.
- Use a legible font (e.g., Times New Roman 12 pt.).
- Include a header with your last name and page number in the upper right corner.
- Center the title (without italics, bold, or underline) at the top of the first page.
- Indent the first line of each paragraph by 0.5 inches.

In-Text Citations

The in-text citation format is simplified to include only the author's last name and the page number(s):

- Example: (Smith 45)

If no author is available, use a shortened title of the work. For electronic sources without pages, omit page numbers.

Works Cited List

The Works Cited page appears at the end of the document, listing all sources referenced in the paper. Key features include:

- Entries are alphabetized by the author's last name.
- Hanging indentation is used for subsequent lines of each entry.
- The format for each entry depends on the source type but generally follows the core elements structure.

Constructing Citations Using the 8th Edition

Basic Format for Common Source Types

Below are examples demonstrating the typical structure for various sources:

Book:

> Last Name, First Name. Title of Book. Publisher, Publication Year.

Journal Article:

> Last Name, First Name. "Title of Article." Title of Journal, vol. number, no. number, Year, pages. DOI or URL.

Website:

> Last Name, First Name (if available). "Title of Web Page." Website Name, Publisher (if different from website name), Publication Date, URL.

Digital File or Media:

> Last Name, First Name. Title of Work. Publisher, Year. Format. URL or DOI.

Using Containers and Other Elements

In digital contexts, sources often exist within larger "containers." For example:

- An article within a website (container: website).
- A chapter within an edited book (container: book).
- A video within a streaming platform (container: platform).

When citing, include container titles in italics, and add other relevant elements like contributors, version, or location as needed.

Special Considerations and Updates in the 8th Edition

Digital and Multimedia Sources

The 8th edition provides extensive guidance on citing:

- Social media posts (Twitter, Facebook).
- Podcasts and streaming media.
- Online images and multimedia.
- Data sets and online repositories.

The emphasis is on identifying the creator, title, container, publisher, publication date, and URL or DOI.

Multiple Authors and Contributors

- For two authors, include both names connected by "and."
- For three or more, list the first author followed by "et al."
- Include contributors like translators or editors when relevant.

Updates and Limitations

While the 8th edition simplifies many rules, users should stay informed about newer developments, such as the MLA 9th edition released in 2021, which further refines citation practices. However, the principles introduced in the 8th edition remain foundational.
