This article aims to provide a comprehensive review of this subject, exploring its historical development, current practices, pedagogical impacts, advantages, disadvantages, and future prospects.

Historical Context and Development of Pak Studies MCQs in English

Pak Studies, introduced as a compulsory subject after Pakistan's independence, has historically been a cornerstone of the curriculum aimed at fostering national identity and understanding of Pakistan's history, culture, geography, and socio-political landscape. The assessment methods for Pak Studies have evolved from essay-based examinations to more diverse formats, including MCQs, short questions, and structured essays.

The adoption of MCQs in Pak Studies gained momentum in the late 20th century, paralleling global trends towards objective testing. The shift was motivated by the need for standardized, efficient, and scalable assessment tools capable of evaluating large student populations. Presently, the majority of Pakistan's examination boards—such as the Punjab Examination Commission (PEC), Federal Board (FBISE), and others—incorporate MCQs into their evaluations, often presenting them in English to test both content knowledge and language skills.
