Class and Socioeconomic Divides

From the outset, the script subtly underscores the stark differences between the characters' backgrounds. Stage directions often depict contrasting settings or costumes, emphasizing social divides. For example:

Use of Space and Movement

The script details actor positioning such as stage left for Mrs. Lyons' household and stage right for Mrs. Johnstone's home to visually reinforce class distinctions. Movement cues, like pacing or gestures, are used to depict emotional states or foreshadow conflicts.

Sound Design and Effects

Early pages might include specific instructions for sound effects like city noises or ambient sounds that situate the story geographically and temporally, making the scene more immersive.
