Foundational Literacy Skills and Creative Expression

Readers and writers notebooks are designed to cultivate two interrelated literacy skills: comprehension and composition. For fifth graders, this period marks a transition from learning to read to reading to learn, making these notebooks instrumental in reinforcing understanding of texts and fostering original thought.

Understanding the Nature of a Feature Article

Before diving into the template, it's important to clarify what distinguishes a feature article from other types of journalistic writing.

What Is a Feature Article?

A feature article is a detailed, in-depth piece that explores a particular topic, person, event, or issue from multiple angles. Key Characteristics of a Feature Article

- Engaging narrative: Uses storytelling devices to captivate readers.
- Human interest elements: Highlights personal stories or experiences.

- Headline

The headline is the first point of contact with your reader. It should be catchy, informative, and accurately represent the content.

Tips for writing an effective headline:

- Use strong action words or intriguing phrases.
- Incorporate keywords related to the topic.
- Keep it concise?ideally under 10 words.
- Consider using a question or pun to spark curiosity.

Example:

"Revolutionizing Recycling: How Students Are Turning Trash Into Treasure"

- Subheadline (Optional)

Provides additional context or a teaser to entice readers further.

Example:

"Discover the innovative ways young environmentalists are making a difference in their communities."

- Lead Paragraph

The lead is crucial?it hooks the reader and sets the tone for the entire article.

Characteristics of a good lead:

- Engaging and compelling
- Concise, typically 2-4 sentences
- Answers the ?who,? ?what,? ?where,? ?when,? and ?why? questions or presents an intriguing fact or quote.

Types of leads:

- Anecdotal lead: Starts with a short story or personal experience.
- Question lead: Poses a thought-provoking question.
- Statistic lead: Presents a surprising or relevant statistic.
- Quote lead: Begins with a compelling quote.

Example:

"Every Saturday morning, a group of students gathers in the school courtyard, not just to socialize but to transform discarded materials into art. Their mission: to challenge perceptions of waste and inspire sustainable living."

Building the Body of Your Feature Article

The body of the article is where you develop your story, providing depth, context, and engagement.

- Nutgraph

Placed early, the nutgraph explains the main point or purpose of the story, summarizing what the article aims to convey.

Example:

"Through their innovative recycling projects, these students are not only reducing waste but also demonstrating leadership and creativity in environmental activism."

- Main Body Sections

Divide the body into logical sections, each with a clear focus. Use subheadings to guide the reader and improve readability.
